THACHER TO QUIT CONVICT LABOR

Shoe Company Fails to Submit Bid for Renewal of Prison Contract.
ONE PROPOSAL RECEIVED
Its Nature Not Revealed, but Will Be Submitted to Governor.

News that the Thacher Company, of Boston, will not even bid on a renewal of its contract for the use of the convict labor at the State Penitentiary will come as a distinct surprise to the people of the State. Such was found to be the fact yesterday, when the board of directors of the prison opened the bids invited for the labor for the next ten and twenty years. The time for filing proposals expired Friday.

Only one bid was received, and that was not from the Thacher Company.
Its source, nature and amount was not disclosed by the board. In view of the fact that the whole matter is about to be laid before the Governor for transmission to the General Assembly, it was deemed inadvisable to make the bid public at this time. The board will not make a contract without the approval of the Legislature, and will put it up to that body.

The existing contract with the Thacher Company, the successor to the Davis Boot and Shoe Company, expires on May 1, 1913.
There has been a great deal of complaint that the price paid the State for convict labor was entirely too low, the amount being only 42 cents a day for men. Yet, it is stated, the contracting firm has been steadily losing money on its operation at the penitentiary. The reason assigned is the unskilled nature of most of the labor, resulting in small output and in the spoiling of material.

As a matter of course, the Thacher Company could not make a bid that would be so low, had it desired. But it may be that it wished to show that it did not want the contract anyhow.
In view of the recent attacks made upon it with reference to undue influence at the prison, a proposition which was denied by the superintendent and other witnesses at the recent investigation.

There has been much agitation for the use of all available convicts on the public roads, and it was stated by Governor Mann yesterday morning that he would suggest such a course in his biennial message to the General Assembly. It will be for the lawmakers to decide, considering the cost to the State.

DISPUTED ACCORD STILL ON GRIDDLE

France Is Dissatisfied Over Agreement With Germany.

TROUBLE STILL IN THE BREWING
Senate Expected to Demand Explanations of Everybody Who Had Anything to Do With Deal—Kaiser Is Rumored to Be Preparing Coup.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] Paris, January 6.—The Franco-German accord is still on the grididdle and the Senate committee, which will report on it when the post-holiday ends Tuesday, is said to be much disappointed with the provisions. The debate will start about the middle of the month. The Senate declares that the accord did not go into the question fully, but not pressing government after quarreling for some time over generalities. The upper house is expected to demand explanations of everybody who had anything to do with the deal, then—sign the agreement, as did the deputies. The press is pessimistic, feeling that if Spain will cause trouble instead of peace.
Already there are rumors that Germany is preparing for a coup in Central Africa and that the imperial government is disputing about the boundaries. The eyes of Europe at least will be on the French Senate when the debate commences.

Negotiations Not Progressing.
[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] Paris, January 6.—No attempt is being made to hide the fact that the negotiations between Spain and France are not progressing. Spain refuses to modify three demands namely, absolute equality of each country in its zone, the maintenance of the occupation of El Kasar (Alcazar), and the refusal to cede any of the southern zone which is of importance to the Canaries. Spain is willing to accept a settlement if the Sultan draws up general regulations for the zone, providing these previously have been agreed to by France. Spain will accept also the Moroccan government control of the public service. If Spanish functionaries are employed, but demands exclusive control over the customs and other taxes.

It is clear that the negotiations have created a feeling of distrust between London and Paris. The latter, which is recognized to be in touch with the feelings and intentions of Premier Cailhau, refers in a note of warning to Spain not to be misled by the declares in the Chamber into thinking that France is likely to show feebly-ness in the negotiations or to expect that France is likely to sacrifice her interests or legitimate claims. The article ends significantly, saying:
"It is undoubtedly that the beneficent influences of France's and Spain's great friends are working at Madrid for an entente."

The suspension of the sittings of the senatorial committee, which has been considering the Franco-German accord, is a move that has been made by the French Government. It is a move that has been made by the French Government. It is a move that has been made by the French Government.
It is a move that has been made by the French Government. It is a move that has been made by the French Government. It is a move that has been made by the French Government.

French Elections To-Day.
[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Paris, January 6.—Until the last two days there has been only the slightest interest shown in the senatorial elections, which will take place to-morrow, when one-third of the Senate will be renewed—ninety-six seats—and in addition to these four by-elections, due to the deaths of senators. There are over 300 candidates for the vacant chairs, and among the most interesting are Jean-Louis Constans, the former ambassador to Turkey, who is seventy-eight years old, and Camille Pelletan, who was once prominent in the party which aimed at the abolishment of the Senate.

Thirteen candidates are seeking to dislodge M. Combes and three of his colleagues, while the Socialists in the department of Aveyron are ambitious-ly, if vainly, hoping to elect M. Jaures.
M. Guende and M. Herve. There are twenty-one candidates for these three seats.

The bond and shareholders of the French Railway Association have sent a circular to the delegates who form the electoral college for the Senate, in which they point out that their holdings from January 1 to December 31 last were depreciated to the amount of 900,000,000 francs, or 5 per cent. of their nominal value. The loss, they declare, is felt severely by 2,000,000 security holders.

The circular attributes the depreciation to the voted and proposed railway legislation of the government, by which the confidence in the railroads has been lost. The circular has been totally disputed. The security holders of the circular protest against the bill of the Minister of Public Works, M. Augagneur, which will interfere with the railroad companies' free choice of officers. They say that by this bill the companies would cease to be commercial enterprises and become the subject of all the hazards of politics, which would vitiate any state enterprise. An witness of this latter contention, they cite the manufacture of matches, which is a government monopoly; the powder works, the telephones and the Western State Railroad. The poor service on the Western State Railroad is well known.

Fernand Labori, prominent lawyer, who was the defender of Dreyfus, and is the husband of Marguerite O'Kay, the former wife of M. Pachman, has brought himself into prominence again by refusing the Legion of Honor, although, as the president of the Paris bar, his name might be included in the New Year's honor list if he so wished.

M. Labori always has given it as his opinion that the honor of the Legion of Honor ought to be limited to the military and the state officers.

LAND SALES IN LOUISIANA.
Hogs, Sheep, Mules and Horses to Be Sold—Auction Estate.
Frederick Hall, Va., January 6.— Usually the holiday season is turned over to Santa Claus, that he may furnish all the pleasure that is possible, but up here at Frederick Hall much business was mixed up with the pleasure of the season.

At the beginning of Christmas week C. B. Rutter, accompanied by his wife and son, dropped in from Philadelphia and bought the Broadhurst and Turnley properties just in the edge of Spotsyylvania county. The total purchase assaggregated over five hundred acres.

The Turnley estate is regarded as the finest and best improved in that immediate section, as the late Mr. Turn-ley, who bought it over twenty-five years ago, steadily improved it. Mr.
Rutter will do a general line of farming, but give special attention to hog and sheep raising.

Mrs. Duval and her son, who came from Easton, Maryland, have purchased two hundred acres of the Southbrook estate, which lies just two and a half miles south of Frederick Hall.
This is one of the noted old estates of Louisiana, and was a grant from the King to the Penitents, and this is the first deed that has passed since the original grant. Mrs. Duval and her son will give their attention to the raising of horses and mules.

Following the above two, E. N. Anderson, of Utica, Pa., purchased the Norton property of eighty acres, which lies just south of the Frederick Hall, on the main automobile road, between Washington and Richmond. Mr.
Anderson purchased this as a summer home, being attracted to it by the fine, large orchard.
